Guidelines for implementation of different Rabi Programmes under RKVY, 2013-14

1. Beneficiaries for each Rabi Programme of RKVY are to be selected in consultation with concerned newly organized PPS & local PRI.
2. Sites for each programme should be selected on the basis of feasibility of the particular crop. No PPS should be selected for more than one similar intervention from different scheme in a particular season. For example, if one PPS is selected for Rice or Potato or Lentil etc. demonstration from one scheme in Rabi for the year 2013 the same PPS should not be selected for same crop demonstration from any other scheme in this Rabi season, 2013. However, other benefit like STW, Power Tiller, WHS may be given which are not in similar nature.
3. For visual impact, demonstration must be conducted in compact basis preferably 10 Ha size and each beneficiary will get benefit of maximum 0.4 Ha.
4. All the inputs as per allotment are to be received by concern SDAOs but all the Challans (for all schemes) of all Sub-division of the district must be countersigned by respective DAOs and Challans (in original) are to be handed over immediately to the suppliers so as to enable the Directorate for timely payment of bills failing which claim will not be entertain for payment of Bill after due date.
5. Inputs are to be stored for distribution to farmer in the hired godown/store house rented for this purpose as per this Directorate letter No. Agri/RKVY/187/Rural Godown/2013-14/23 dtd. 30-9-2013. In addition to this godown, DAOs/SDAOs may avail the facility of storage in ASC Ltd. Godown.
6. DAOs are to submit weekly arrival inputs report in each Monday to this Directorate by special messenger or through E-mail address (rkvyassam@gmail.com) by collecting same from sub-division concern.
7. Inputs received inferior quality, and also after the stipulated time must be avoided. Any such practices detected, will be dealt strongly by Govt.
